

Sir

Philad: June 22. 1802<sup>1</sup>

By directions of the American Philos. Socy held at this place, I have the pleasure of sending the 5th Vol of our Transactions to be placed in the Library of the Royal Academy of Arts & Sciences at St Peters-burg - it is entrusted to the care of M<sup>r</sup> A D Smith of that city, who is on the point of embarking from New York to return thither.

I should your Society honor us with any communications hereafter, it would contribute much to the certainty of receiving them, if alone should be sent by the same Vessel in the Lottubag, giving a notice of what is sent.

I remain with the greatest respect

Y<sup>r</sup>. Your obedient Servant
John Redman Foxe M<sup>d</sup>.
Sec<sup>y</sup>. to the A. P. S.

To the President or Secretary of the Royal Academy of Arts & Sciences
St Petersburg
